

The New Westminster and District Band Society (the “Band”) uses likenesses (photos / video) of its members to promote its activities and to recruit new members. The Band might use them in print, digitally or as online media.

Members accept all risks from participating in the Band’s activities. Members take sole responsibility for their safety. Therefore, in return for permission from the Band to participate in its activities:

I consent to the above uses of my likeness and I understand that my consent lasts forever, even if I am no longer a Band member. The media using my likeness are the Band’s property & I will not receive compensation for the Band’s use of my likeness.

I release the Band, the Band’s Executive, Board of Directors, Music Directors, volunteers, other members from liability for damage, loss or injury I might suffer because of participating in the Band’s activities. I release the Band, the Band’s Executive, Board of Directors, Music Directors, volunteers, other members from liability for damage, loss or injury I might suffer because of its use of print, digital or online media.

I have carefully read and understand this agreement. I have also carefully read and fully understood the Band’s fundraising policy, fee policy and the statement of commitment regarding attendance. I sign this agreement freely & voluntarily and I am physically and mentally fit to participate in the Band’s activities.

I agree to stop participating in a Band activity if I notice an unsafe condition and I will also stop participating, if I feel unable to continue safely.

The N.W.D. Band will not let me participate in its activities unless I sign this agreement and British Columbia Law governs this agreement. I understand that this agreement binds me, my heirs, executors, administrators, personal representatives and assigns.
